

Erica Harris
Director of Development, Georgia State University Perimeter College

Erica Harris is a passionate and collaborative fundraiser with over 10 years of experience engaging and connecting individuals with their philanthropic goals. Erica is responsible for maintaining an extensive donor portfolio and serves as the liaison for the DeKalb College and GPC Retiree Association.

Erica earned her undergraduate degree in Sociology from University of West GA and graduate degree in Philanthropy and Development from LaGrange College. She has a national certification in Nonprofit Organization Management (IOM) from the U.S. Chamber of Commerce. She currently serves on the board of the Georgia Education Advancement Council (GEAC) and is a member of the Georgia State Staff Council.