

Cindy Forrest is a Georgia native growing up and living on the south side of the metro Atlanta area in Fairburn and Newnan. An alumna of GSU, she holds a BBA in Hospitality Administration. In her free time, she loves to hike, kayak, fish, read and spend time with her husband, two grown children, and pets - currently a German Shepherd and a cat.

Cindy has spent most of her career at GSU, primarily in the College of Arts and Sciences managing college level events, serving as a major gift officer, and overseeing department advisory boards. Her efforts have contributed significantly to the College of Arts and Sciences success in the University's Burning Bright Capital Campaign. On January 18, 2017, Cindy was selected to manage the fundraising program in the College of the Arts as the Director of Development.

Cindy can be reached at cforrest@gsu.edu or 404-413-3191.
