

Mike Worley is a senior associate vice president with the Georgia State University Foundation. Mike has more than 20 years of experience in higher education. He has a strong background in the healthcare and higher education academic arenas.

Mike previously served as a senior associate with the Bentz Whaley Flessner consulting firm working with healthcare and academic clients across the United States. Prior to consulting, Mike served as executive director of major and planned giving for the SSM Health Care Foundations in St. Louis; director of national development at Cardinal Glennon Children's Hospital in St. Louis (part of SSM); executive director of development for regional projects as well as regional director of development at Washington University in St. Louis; major gifts officer at East Carolina University; and associate executive director of the Ohio University Alumni Association. Previous to advancement work, Mike worked in executive search and in higher education in athletics.

Mike is a recognized leader in philanthropy, notably through multiple leadership and speaking engagements at CASE conferences around the country. He has been awarded the CASE Faculty Star three times.

Mike earned both his Bachelor's and Master's degrees from Ohio University in Athens, Ohio.

In his free time, Mike enjoys fly fishing, sporting clays, marathons and long-distance trail running. Mike is a 3X Boston Qualifier.